

Priority cards

Source: Alexander, 2001, p. 8

Create a society which is dynamic, productive and prosperous	Offer opportunity for all
Create fairness for all	Unlock the treasure that lies within
Create social cohesion	Ensure that every child can read, write and add up
Achieve success across all school subjects	Provide access to this country's rich and diverse culture
Develop an understanding of Britain's history and place in the world	Gain insights into the best that has been thought and said and done
Learn to respect others and themselves	Appreciate and understand the moral code on which civilised society is based
Appreciate the culture and background of others	Develop strength of character

Develop attitudes to life and work, such as responsibility, determination, care and generosity	Become effective citizens of a democratic society
Develop creativity and skill in the arts	Challenge inequality and injustice
Cultivate free spirits	Learn to learn
Get a job	Collective childcare
Social control	Promote obedience
Develop respect for parents	Develop respect for your cultural identity
Learn to live responsibly and peacefully in a free society	Learn to respect the environment